UPDATED 1/30/2013

I. Emergency Contact Persons

Our firm's two emergency contact persons are: Leonard Barenboim, 914-925-0022 ext 108, lbarenboim@moneypaper.com and Sharon Markland, 914-925-0022 ext 109, smarkland@temperenrollment.com, assistant for the ER. These names will be updated in the event of a material change, and our Executive Representative will review them for any changes within 2 weeks of the end of each quarter.

II. Firm Policy

Our firm's policy is to respond to a Significant Business Disruption (SBD) by safeguarding employees' lives and firm property, making a financial and operational assessment, quickly recovering and resuming operations, protecting all of the firm's books and records, and allowing our customers to transact business. In the event that we determine we are unable to continue our business, we will assure our customers as to the status of their funds at our bank and their securities at the transfer agent.

A. Significant Business Disruptions (SBDs)

Our plan recognizes two kinds of SBDs, internal and external. Internal SBDs affect only our firm's ability to communicate and do business, such as a fire in our building. External SBDs prevent the operation of the securities markets or a number of firms, such as a terrorist attack, a city flood, or a wide-scale regional disruption. Our response to an external SBD relies more heavily on other organizations and systems.

B. Approval and Execution Authority

Leonard Barenboim, President, a registered principal, is responsible for approving the plan and for conducting the required annual review. Leonard Barenboim, President, has the authority to execute this BCP.

C. Plan Location and Access

Our firm maintains copies of its BCP plan and the annual reviews, and the changes that have been made to it for inspection. An electronic copy of our plan is located on Leonard Barenboim's computer at C:/Documents and Settings\Gerard Moreno IV\Desktop\Gerards Computer\BCP Plans. It is also available thru a PDF on the internet at <http://www.temperenrollment.com/temperBCP.pdf>.

III. Business Description

Our Firm has only one office. Our firm business revolves only in equity securities. We only buy equities to enroll customers in DRIP programs and open their accounts at their respective transfer agents. We never sell equities for our customers. Our firm is self clearing for itself only. Furthermore, we do not hold customer funds or securities. We do not accept orders via telephone. We accept and enter orders when in receipt of funds via checks, or money orders. Customer funds are deposited generally on a daily basis into a segregated customer account at our bank's local branch. All equity orders during the previous month are executed on or about the 10th of the following month. This purchase is done on the internet through our executing broker. We compare and settle these trades at the DTC. On T+3 we start enrolling our customers in the DRIP's they chose at their respective transfer agents. Our firm services mostly retail customers. We do not engage in any other trading activity.

VI. Customers' Access to Funds and Securities

Our firm does not maintain custody of customers' funds or securities. The checks we receive are deposited with our bank, J P Morgan Chase generally on a daily basis. The customer can also call the telephone number at the alternative physical location to get information about his or her status. The firm gives the phone number of the alternative location at its web site http://www.temperofthetimes.com and on its Enrollment Order Forms under the heading Business Continuity Plan.

If SIPC determines that we are unable to meet our obligations to our customers or if our liabilities exceed our assets in violation of Securities Exchange Act Rule 15c3-1, SIPC may seek to appoint a trustee to disburse our assets to customers. We will assist SIPC and the trustee by providing our books and records identifying customer accounts subject to SIPC regulation.

For the loss of electronic records, we will either physically recover the storage media or electronically recover data from our back-up site, or, if our primary site is inoperable, continue operations at our back-up site.

VIII. Financial and Operational Assessments

A. Operational Risk

In the event of an SBD, we will immediately identify what means will permit us to communicate with our customers, employees, critical business constituents, critical banks, critical counter-parties, and regulators. Although the effects of an SBD will determine the means of alternative communication, the communications options we will employ will include our Web site, telephone voice mail, secure e-mail, etc. In addition, we will retrieve our key activity records as described in the section above, Data Back-Up and Recovery (Hard Copy and Electronic).

B. Financial and Credit Risk

In the event of an SBD, we will determine the value and liquidity of our investments and other assets to evaluate our ability to continue to fund our operations and remain in capital compliance. We will contact our critical banks, to apprise them of our financial status. If we determine that we may be unable to meet our obligations to those counter-parties or otherwise continue to fund our operations, we will request additional financing from our bank or other credit sources to fulfill our obligations to our customers and clients. If we cannot remedy a capital deficiency, we will file appropriate notices with our regulators and immediately take the appropriate steps they would require.

IX. Mission Critical Systems

Our firm's "mission critical systems" are those that ensure prompt and accurate processing of securities transactions, including order taking, entry, execution, comparison, allocation, clearance and settlement of securities transactions. We have primary responsibility for establishing and maintaining our business relationships with our customers and provide, the execution, comparison, allocation, clearance and settlement and delivery of securities transactions, (we do not maintain customer accounts).

We maintain a business continuity plan and the capacity to execute that plan.

1. Order Taking

Currently, our firm receives orders from customers via mail or Web site at www.directinvesting.com. During an SBD, either internal or external, we will take orders through any of these methods. We will go to the post office to pick up the mail if it cannot be delivered. In addition, as communications permit, we will inform our customers when communications become available to tell them what alternatives they have to send their orders to us. Customers will be informed of alternatives at the internet site www.directinvesting.com and www.temperofthetimes.com, by e-mail or by a recorded message at our alternative physical location phone # 973-256-3623.

2. Order Entry

The firm enters orders by recording them electronically thru our internal in house system. We execute customer orders once a month via the internet with our online broker on or about the 10th of each month. The broker has indicated that we can expect continued service as long as their executing systems are functional. In the event that their services are affected, we would seek the services of another online broker who can carry out our trade executions.

3. Order Execution

We currently execute orders by accessing the internet to our executing broker. In the event of an internal SBD, we would execute orders through the internet with our executing broker from our alternative physical location.
